DAVIS THEATRE.

Three Great Acts and Feature Photo Plays For Friday and Saturday.

Friday and Saturday of this For Friday and Saturday of this week the management has booked another high class vaudeville show consisting of three topline acts and feature photo plays. Barney Stone and the Desmond Sisters head the bit in a classy singing, dancing and costume change specialty, right up to date and full of cingur the costumes worn by full of ginger, the costumes worn by the siris are all beautiful and of the atest fads. If you want to see some-thing good don't miss this act. Joe thing good don't miss this act. Joe and Marie Belmont are the second act and their act consists of singing, talking and whistling. Joe Belmont is known as vandeville's best whistler and enjoys the distinction of being calleed the human bird, a sobriquet the second of calleed the human bird, a sobriquet happily applied to one who is so wonderfully gifted as he. Mr. Belmont is known in every city and town in. the civilized world through the medium of the phonograph and talking machine companies who engage him exclusively for all the whistling solos and bird effects you hear in the phonograph. Dady Dines completes the vaudeville and Dady is no new companies the vaudeville stage. He does a er to the vaudeville stage. He does a novelty juggling act and can hold his own with the best of them. The his own with the best of them. The whole three acts are all standard acts and an entertaining show is promised. In the photo plays The Saving of Young Anderson, a powerful two reel story of a big police department is the feature the first of the Irving S. Cobb series of Our Mutual Girl will also be shown and Soldiers of Misfortune, a Keystone comedy of the funniest kind. Don't forget the big bargain mathree Don't forget the big bargain matinee every day at 2 o'clock, 5 and 10 cents. If you haven't already secured your seats for Neil O'Brien and his Ameri-can Minstrels, do so early today.

DAVIS THEATRE. Neil O'Brien's Minstrels, Matines and Night Today.

In all the splendor and freshness of a brand new scenic production, with a company of undoubted superiority and with all new acts and features, Nell with all new acts and features, Nell O'Brien and his Great American Min-strels, now on their third annual tour will be the attraction at the Davis theatre this afternoon and evening.

Few organizations ever promoted have more neclicity or more quickly gained public esteem and confidence than this enterprise headed by one of America's most distinguished minstre-stars and the announcement of its approaching engagement in this city conveys to the discriminating theatrego-ers an evening of much good class fun and many a hearty laugh. The O'Brien minstrels now occupy a foremost po-sition among organizations of its kind a distinction gained by meritorius performances in the past, performances clean and free of all objectionable fea-tures, yet lively and exhilerating

This season Mr. O'Brien and his manager, Oscar F. Hodge, have as-sembled a company of prominence, the ensemble of comedians and vocalists taking rank with any minstrel organization promoted in many years. Be-sides the star, the roster of come-diens includes Herry Van Fossen, who makes his return to minstrel this season after a year's absence in musical comedy, Eddie Mazier, who has been a strong feature with this com-pany ever since its conception. Pete Detzel, another favorite with O'Brien and Strong and a score of others, all top notchers.

The singing features are promised as particularly delightful, the list of star vocalists including among others such well known names as Davide erty. Norris a phenominal basso, James Barardi, tenor Nick Voerg, a male soprano, said to possess a voice of wonderful range and quality, Leslie Berry, baritone, Charles R. Wright, Berry, baritone Charles R. Wright, Jonathan Haw Billy Curran, F. B. Hodges and a large chorus. Frank Fuhrer again directs the special or-chestra, while the specialties are promised as numerous and classy including ised as numerous and classy including a new act by Neil O'Brien called "Demon Rum of a Dry Town," in which the star appears supported by a large cast. Matinee prices, lower floor 75c, and 59c. Balcony, 59c and 25c. Evening, 25c, 35c, 50c, 75c $1.00, $1.50. Secure your seats early.

Tyson and Barbour are a pair of refined singers and dancers, who have an exceptionally neat act. They are good singers, fine dancers, and have some beautiful costumes. "Classy" is the best word that describes this act. The last act is Toli, who is a comery heavy weight juggler. Toli is a Frenchman who was playing in the West when the present European situation came to a crists. He came fast but was unable to get passage East but was unable to get passage back to France to join his regiment, but arranged to sail for England from Boston next week and the Auditorium is his last engagement in this country. To close the show we have the great Ford Sterling himself in "Snookless Editation". No need to say any Ford Sterling himself in Shookies Flirtation." No need to say any more Ford is a show all by himself Don't forget tomorrow brings the last chapter of the great "Lucille Love" series. See how the mystery is solved.

She does not love her husband at first; but the sight of the true nature of her former lover proving that she had misplaced her love, she finds that the man she married is the right man after all. He however, has left his home town, upon finding his wife's lack of love, and she follows him west, and love, and she follows him west, and suddenly comes upon him caught in a bear trap. Her timely arrival and devotion and his self-sacrificing nature, prove them to be rightly mated after such a strenuous honeymoon. "The Idiot," is a spectacular Biograph drama and other features are, "Broncho Billy Outlaw," with Anderson and "The Ever Gallant, Marquis," and "Up-to-Date Courtship," two Edison com-edies provide the laughs on the pro-

Soft, Fluffy Hair Aids Beauty and Personality

Norwich

For the final half of the week the management has arranged another well balanced programme on the usual lines offered by this theatre, and while the entire bill is equally good there are a few points of special interest that deserve special mention.

The feature photo play today is a wonderfully dramatic three act play produced by the imp company under the direction of Herbert Brennon, the man who is responsible for "Neptune's Daughter" which ran for 6 months at the Globe theatre, N. Y. The little of it is "When the World was Silent," and the leading parts are enacted by Leah Baird, William Shay and William Welsh. The plot and direction are so unique that this film is in a class by itself.

A very pretty novelty is presented by Roymonds Posing Dogs in their scenic offering entitled "The Hunt." These thoroughbread hunting dogs are so wonderfully trained that it is hard to believe that they are real, and it, is only at the finish of the act that they show any signs of life. This is one of the prettiest acts ever seen in Norwich.

Tyson and Barbour are a pair of the scentiful and attractive—it's their birthright—but stringy, thin and the destroys hair the becauty of a pretty face.

If your hair is not beautiful, is falling out, streak, full of dandruff, too dry, or if the scalp it well into the hair to grow strong and inturiant. Parisian Sage removes dandruff with one application and cleanses the hair doubly beautiful.
